

HTML5 code for difference between images, shapes, pictures, canvas elements, maps, objects with no given or null field for image source in http. I could put an alt=" " but not necessary. What is the HTML rule on this object, picture of a shape for a logo at the head of the body or first header?