

This is a parent area P with three descendants.

This is a leading area in P (there should be no areas before this area other than P).

This is another descendant area in P.

And this is the third descendant area in P.