

This is a parent area P with three descendants.

This is a the first descendant area in P.

This is another descendant area in P.

This is a trailing area in P (there should be no areas other than P following this area)