Each funnel item is an issue on GitHub, e.g. SVG

Track the conversation, and share your comments:

A screenshot of a GitHub issue page for 'w3c/strategy' repository, issue #59 titled 'SVG maintenance post-1.1'. The page shows a conversation between users svgeesus and grorg. svgeesus opened the issue on Dec 13, 2016, with the title 'How to maintain and develop SVG in the face of browser disinterest in SVG 2'. The issue is labeled 'Core', 'Media', and 'Publishing'. svgeesus self-assigned it. grorg commented on Dec 13, 2016, suggesting to investigate browser disinterest and to separate maintenance from development. svgeesus responded on Dec 15, 2016, agreeing that maintenance and development are separate issues. svgeesus commented on Feb 7, 2016, providing a link to a 'SVG 2 feature support' document. svgeesus moved the issue through the Strategy Funnel from Exploration to Investigation (Feb 14) and then to Evaluation (Feb 15). svgeesus commented on Feb 15, providing a link to a 'Draft charter to add SVG to CSS WG (advance notice phase)'. wseltzer moved the issue from Evaluation to Chartering in the Strategy Funnel on Feb 15. svgeesus commented on Feb 17, providing a link to a background document. Finally, svgeesus moved the issue from Chartering to Evaluation in the Strategy Funnel on Feb 23.

Sequence

- The funnel reads from left to right. Most issues (cards) start in Exploration and move forward or move out of the funnel.
- The funnel is maintained by the W3C Strategy Team. We welcome input and discussion on issues, particularly as they reach the Evaluation and Chartering phases.
