

Number	Question	-1	0	1	2	3	Weighted ave
13	An opportunity to ensure that the web is open and royalty-free.	0	1	3	14	17	2.34
3	The ability to influence the direction for web standards.	0	0	8	8	19	2.31
1	Working Group output (for example, specifications) that will have a major impact on my organization in its industry.	0	2	3	14	16	2.26
9	A place where we interact with global experts that my organization would not normally interact with.	0	1	5	14	14	2.21
12	An opportunity to make a contribution to the web infrastructure which is an important common good for society.	0	1	5	14	14	2.21
7	An inclusive and open working environment that strives to make sure that all comments, concerns, and suggestions are heard, respected, and handled well.	0	1	1	23	10	2.20
8	Make sure that web standards have the widest possible sets of inputs.	0	0	5	19	11	2.17
2	Working Group output (for example, specifications) that is required for incremental progress in my organization.	0	2	4	17	12	2.11
16	An opportunity to address important technical problems related to key values of W3C, such as security, privacy, accessibility, and internationalization.	1	0	8	14	12	2.03
18	The fall Technical Plenary and AC meeting.	0	3	7	21	4	1.74
6	A collaborative pre-standardization innovation community in Community Groups that leads to standardization.	1	3	14	13	4	1.46
15	An opportunity to understand the broader business aspects through working with multiple stakeholders interested in different aspects of a common technology.	0	4	15	12	4	1.46
4	A flexible and agile Process for developing standards and technical and legal infrastructure to support it.	0	5	11	18	1	1.43
10	Access to W3C's staff of technical experts.	1	6	12	11	5	1.37
22	Increasing participation of web developers and designers, such as by having more Invited Experts.	0	7	12	13	3	1.34
28	Programs that encourage adoption of W3C Standards (such as more outreach to developers that exploit new APIs).	1	6	11	16	1	1.29
26	More developer tooling (for example, validators).	1	5	15	12	2	1.26
17	The spring AC meeting.	0	9	13	11	2	1.17
5	Tooling infrastructure for the creation of standards.	2	9	11	13	0	1.00
21	Holding web developer conferences.	2	11	11	10	1	0.91
11	Early insight into new business opportunities for my organization.	4	9	13	5	4	0.89
29	Hosting implementations of standards.	5	10	11	5	4	0.80
23	More effort by the Team to facilitate your company's success in web standards.	5	12	7	10	1	0.71
20	Hosting meetings between executives in your industry.	5	13	7	9	1	0.66
25	Technical certification programs (compliance with specs).	6	11	11	4	3	0.63
24	Developer training and certification programs.	6	12	9	7	1	0.57
27	Two TPACs per year.	5	12	12	5	1	0.57
14	An opportunity to interact with one (or several) of the W3C Host institutions.	2	21	6	4	2	0.51